Letter from Bedford City. [Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

BEDFORD CITY, July 34 .- A waik through old Liberty yesterday morning brought me into contact with some of its cit zane. One, whom I asked about the boom, said business was about as brisk then (it was about 7 g. m,) as it was all day and that the boom had subsided. I enquired whother he thought

I could get $100 worth of stock for $5; he thought I could if I was in the humor for ic-vesting, and I think he was about to say $1 000 when he checked himself. The situa-tion of the place is superb, but Virginia is some years ago, only 20 remained, the rest had all gone to Roanoke. To-day Superintendent Shepherd, of Flu-vanua county, made an able and elequent address on the duties of school superintend-address on the duties of school superintendents. Principal Theodore J. Wool, of Ports mouth, read a paper on the Teachers' Term of Office in which he advocated elections during good behavior, pension is for long service, and other changes more likely to be wished for than ottained; Principal Pendieton, of Richmond, gave an instruction on Map Drawing, and Superintendent Saunders, of Campbell.

and Superintendent Saunders, of Campbell, made what was announced in the programme (pronounced program by the advanced educators) as a "paper on Higher Education of Women," but which was a di-course on things educational in general, in which the present Board of E lucation, as with the presence Band of Prince of its which is predecessors, was arraigned in strong terms for neglect of duty in allowing too many small echools to be established and providing few county high schools. Superintendent Massey replied in an able manner, saying that he was usually accused of being too dictatorial, and sometimes of as uming authority he did not possess, but that if these charges continued to be made, be could call upon Superintendent Saunders as a witness to the contrary. Papers on the surject were then read by Superintendents Blick, of Brunswick, and Rawls, of Isle of Wight, and Mrs. Bartkowsks, of the State Normal School, who was on the programme for another, gave way to Miss Celestia Parrish, of the same school, wholfmade a strong speech in while she strongly advocated conducation and insisted that girls ought to be admitted to the Majorative of Veninga and all the

to the University of Virginia and all the State institutions on equal terms with the boys. She said she didn't wish to go to the Military Institute, but she advised the girls present to stand up for their rights and they would get at least a portion of them.

The effect of this speech upon some of the superintendents was far from pleasing, as it showed bow rapidly the isms of the North were penetrating Virginia, and the feeling was not decreased by the remark of Supt.

Massey that he had secured coeducation in the Miller School in Albemarle, which he considered the best institution in the State, and that he saw no reason why the Univer-Neediul School Legislation was the theme of Supr. Ceskie, of Nelson, at the night ses-don, at which an able address on the same sut jet was also made by Supt Hall, of Fair

The speech of the evening, however, was that of Surt Staples, of Patrick, a genuine orator of the mountains. It was a cross be tween an old-fashioned 4th of July oration and a political stump speech. His graphic description of the pari's of an examination in "the free State of Patrick." where fifteen women surrounded him, each demanding that her unqua ified daughter should have a first grade certificate and a school, brought down the house, as did indeed many other passages of his address. FIDELIS.

So perfectly harmless is this remedy that it can be taken by the youngest infant or the most delicate person without injury, no matter what the condition of the system may be. It can do no harm if it does no good, but its reputation for 40 years proves it never fails in doing good.
